

TEACHING

COURSE DEVELOPMENT AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS OF THE PERMIAN BASIN (UTPB)

New Courses Developed

SPAN 6390 Directed Readings.

SPAN 6300 Literary Criticism and Research of Methods.

SPAN 6322 Contemporary Mexican Literature.

SPAN 6342 20th Century Spanish American Literature Prose.

SPAN 6352 Mexican-American Literature.

SPAN 4378 Hispanic Children's Literature.

SPAN 4359 Central American Literature.

SPAN 4352 Mexican-American Literature.

SPAN 4351 Mexican Literature.

SPAN 3332 Health Care Spanish

SPAN 2389 Business Writing in Spanish.

Course Revisions & Updates

Restructured the following courses to strengthen content & prepare students for advanced study in Spanish (in particular, graduate study in the proposed Master's degree at UTPB).

SPAN 2312 Second Year Spanish II

SPAN 2311 Second Year Spanish I

SPAN 3301 Advanced Grammar, Composition & Syntax

SPAN 3302 Advanced Conversation & Composition

SPAN 3331 Spanish Conversation

SPAN 4302 Spanish Literature II

SPAN 4301 Spanish Literature I

SPAN 4312 Spanish American Literature II

SPAN 4311 Spanish American Literature I

SPAN 4337 Hispanic Literature & Culture Through Travel

Intercampus Teaching

The University of Texas of the Permian Basin-Midland College (2005-2006)

COURSES TAUGHT

Undergraduate Courses in Spanish

- Beginning, intermediate, & advanced courses in Spanish language, culture, & civilization
- Latin-American literature, including literature of Central America and Mexico
- Hispanic children's literature
- Mexican-American literature
- Spanish Peninsular literature
- Business writing in Spanish

Graduate Courses in Spanish

- Literary criticism
- 20th Century Spanish American Prose
- Contemporary Mexican literature
- Contemporary Spanish American Poetry
- Mexican-American literature

Undergraduate & Graduate Courses in Philosophy

- Modern philosophy
- Existentialism
- Contemporary French philosophy
- Ethics
- Social & political philosophy
- Metaphysics